COURSE DESCRIPTION: (4 units)
This is the second semester of practicum teaching experience, supervised experience, if possible to be done in a different setting than the first semester. This course provides advanced practical application of theories covered in prerequisite courses.

Prerequisites: Child Development 1, 2, 3, 4, 11, 22, health examination, verification of TB test.
Priority will be given to students eligible for the Child Development Certificate at the end of Fall 2012 Semester
Seminar: 2 Hours
Laboratory: Minimum of 6 Hours per week for a total of 90 hours.
(If possible to be done in a different setting than the first semester)

COURSE OBJECTIVES:
The educational objectives of this course are to enable the student to:

1. observe and participate in a teaching situation by working directly with children, staff and parents.
2. plan, implement and evaluate educational/developmental experiences, which meet the needs of a diverse group of children, in the areas of physical, social, emotional and cognitive growth for the individual and the total group.
3. evaluate and discuss her/his present teaching methods and style, and modify them when necessary.
4. participate as a functional member of the school personnel team.
5. develop professional attitudes as evidenced by attendance at meetings, workshops and conferences sponsored by professional organizations.
6. enhance effective guidance techniques, which result in a reasonable system of limits, rules and expectations.
7. organize and maintain a safe and healthy learning/developmental environment, which reflects sensitivity to diverse needs.
8. organize and sustain the positive functioning of groups of children in a learning/developmental environment.
9. relate to each child as an individual, a member of a family, and as a part of his/her culture.
10. facilitate effective communication and interaction with parents, whenever the opportunity may arise.
11. recognize and identify children with special needs, including physical and behavioral disorders, make referrals and seek guidance in handling these children.
12. carry out additional responsibilities as assigned by the supervisor, director or teacher.
13. complete a job application, develop a resume, prepare for an interview and articulate a personal philosophy statement regarding child development.

14. Prepare and organize a professional portfolio, which includes original lesson or learning plans and letters of recommendation.
15. Identify and discuss current issues and trends in the field of child development, and articulate a professional development plan.

If you have not yet contacted Disabled Student Program & Services (DSP&S), do so in a timely manner. DSP&S is located in Instructional Building. Visit DSP&S at www.lamission.edu/dsps or 818-833-3313 for contact information.

Please note:
The course outline is a guide for the semester and may be modified/revised to enhance learning outcomes or by events outside the control of the instructor.

Cell Phones:
Please be courteous and turn off your cell phone to a silent mode.

Teaching Style:
"All genuine learning is active, not passive. It is a process of discovery in which the student is the main agent, not the teacher." (Adler, 1982)
One must learn by doing the thing, for though you think you know it-you have no certainty until you try." (Sophocles, 5th C. B.C.)

CLASS REQUIREMENTS: All assignments must be proof read and typed before you turn them in to me.

- Supervised field experience
  - At place of employment or volunteering for a minimum of 6 hours per week for a total of 90 hours per semester.
  - To be arranged with instructor.

- Daily Log/Weekly Journal
  - Keep a daily log including comments and questions about your teaching experience.
  - These pages must be turned in each week.

- Learning Plans:
  - Learning plans must be submitted in the following eight (8) areas:
    - Language
    - Math

- Social Studies/Anti-bias
- Physical/Motor
- Art
- Music
- Cooking
- Science

- Four learning plans due each semester.
- Two Learning plans must be implemented with the children in your class while the instructor is visiting in the first semester, two in the second semester.
- Written plans must be submitted before the visit.
- If the Instructor will not observe learning plans, they should be submitted after implementation in order to include an evaluation.

- Group Presentations- (Groups will be assigned by the Instructor)
  - Small groups of three or four students will work together to present Circle time Ideas, Tender Topics, and Staff Relations during the semester.
  - We all learn from each other and only by collaborating that we become open to other perspectives and experiences.
  - Please be a responsible team player in supporting your group.
  - Active group participation is required.
  - If a group member is not participating she/he may not get the same grade.
  - Turn in a summary of how each group member participated in this collaborative project along with your paper.
  - The process of doing this project is of great value in learning.

- Bulletin Board
  - Each group will design, display and present a bulletin board in the Child Development Classroom.

- Annual Editions Reviews and writing assignments
  - Each semester, several articles will be assigned for review and discussion in class. Format to be arranged.
  - There will be several writing assignments.

- Documentation- CD 23 (Second semester)
  - A "Documentation" of children's learning must be created and presented in class for evaluation and discussion.
  - Format and requirements will be discussed in class.
  - This will be due in the fall semester.

- Professional Meeting:
  - Students must attend one professional meeting, conference, or workshop each semester.
  - A written and oral summary is required.
  - Staff in-service training at your school is not accepted.
  - Please turn in the proof of attendance as well.

- Individual Conferences
  - Individual and/or group meetings will be arranged between the student and the instructor to discuss teaching experience, progress, concerns, questions, etc.
  - These will be arranged during class hours.

- Portfolio
  - An individual portfolio will be required from each student completing the Practicum classes.
  - The portfolio will include, but not limited to:
    - Statement of philosophy
    - Resume
    - Eight typed learning plans - (4 each semester)

        - Visitation notes from instructor
        - Degrees, certificates, transcripts, etc.
        - Awards
        - Letters of reference
        - Transcripts
    - Examples of projects, activities, papers, etc. may be included if you wish.
    - You can be as creative as you want.
    - The complete portfolio is due only at the end of the second semester (December)

- Evaluations:
    - End-semester self-evaluations and Supervising Teacher/Director Evaluation

- Participation:
    - Participation is mandatory. Small and large group participation is also very important and will influence your grade.
    - If you cannot attend class for any reason, it is important that you notify me in advance.

- Assignments turned in late:
    - Occasionally something occurs that prevents an assignment from being submitted on time.
    - If this has been discussed in advance, there is no penalty.
    - However if work is submitted late without a previous agreement with me, your grade for that assignment will be lowered.
    - If an assignment is not submitted at all, your final grade will be lowered by a full letter grade.
