

Los Angeles Mission College 19-20 Administration of Justice Associate Degree for Transfer (ADT)

Students completing the Associate in Science in Administration of Justice for Transfer will have satisfied the lower division major preparation in Administration of Justice at most CSUs. Students will be able to transfer to an undergraduate program at the university level within the criminal justice fields. The Administration of Justice major prepares students for transfer to complete work for a bachelor's degree in criminal justice or related field. Students will be able to describe the individual functions and components of the modern criminal justice system; use introductory concepts of legal research to locate, analyze, and discuss the content of statutory and case law; and apply critical thinking skills to solve a criminal justice problem. The Associate in Science in Administration of Justice for Transfer can lead to careers in law enforcement, courts and corrections.

Students who complete this degree will be guaranteed admission with junior status to the California State University system, although not a particular campus or major. Students can use the ADT Search by CSU Campus to view which CSU campuses accept ADT degrees in their major: <http://www.calstate.edu/transfer/adt-search/search.shtml>
