- Practice positive leadership strategies
- Need help with the step after the positive leadership that being no results or no change.
- Start to think of new ways to address issues in a different more positive way; as I needed reminding of positive approaches.

I’ve not really had many issues considering the large # of people who work on campus.

I really liked having a college-wide effort. In this way, departments can promote and embrace collegiality.

I liked addressing non-collegial behavior using gays, but leadership finding ways to change behavior using the assets of the college.

I agree you need to praise the "follow me, good behavior." Don't go to ineffective strategy too much.

[Handwritten text: Through Department Meeting, periodic departmental newsletter, posting position and affirmative affirmations, making part of departmental code of ethics. Exchanging ideas, sharing in some cases “culture”, developing collegial customer service, open-ended inputs for our expectations within the discipline. Doctor Leadership, redesign and rework for department mission statement, all departmental. Maintains a positive attitude, ask for input training as a faculty and department chair. Additional training: taking the humanistic view, as well. The thing I can work on is to be more positive feedback, skill work as a member.]
