	Yes	No
Are you an employee of L.A. Community College District (LACCD)
Are you a vendor, contractor, or consultant to the LACCD?
Do you have any scheduling conflicts that would preclude you from attending quarterly meetings?
Do you have any reason to believe there exists any potential conflict of interest (i.e. financial interest or incompatible activities in issues or matters that may come before the Citizens' Oversight Committee (CCOC) which would adversely affect your ability to serve on the CCOC? If your answer is "Yes", briefly explain in the lines above or on a separate sheet of paper and attach it to this application.
Are you willing to comply with the Los Angeles Community College District Conflict of Interest Code, Ethics Code included in the CCOC bylaws and other related laws, District board rules and regulations relating to the operation and function of the Citizens' Oversight Committee?
Members of the Committee may be required to file financial disclosure statements pursuant to rules and forms established by the Fair Political Practices Commission? Are you willing to file such financial disclosure statements?
(*Employees, vendors, contractor, and consultants of the Los Angeles Community College District are prohibited by law from being members of the Citizens' Oversight Committee. Employment which could result in becoming a contractor or subcontractor to the District would also be a potential conflict.)

All answers and statements in this document are true and complete to the best of my knowledge.
