Common ?’s about Priority Registration

- How to get it
- How to keep it
- What and Why?
- When?
- What do I need to do?
- Wait! I’m on academic probation...Now what?
What and Why?

- Changes to priority registration throughout the California Community Colleges system will help students get the courses they need to meet their educational goals.
- Priority registration will be given to students who work with a counselor to develop an education plan, succeed in their classes, and stay on track.
- LAMC Counseling and Student Services will be providing services to help students stay on track.
When?

- The new changes will take effect for the fall 2014 academic year
- This means students will need to pay attention to what they are doing now so they can enjoy the benefits of priority registration in the future
What do I need to do?

Continuing Students
- Check in with counselor to develop an updated SEP
- Maintain at least a 2.0 GPA.
- Complete at least 50% of enrolled units each semester
- Don’t accumulate more than 100 units by fall 2014

New Students
- Complete college orientation
- Complete the assessment process
- Meet with a counselor to develop a SEP
- Once students begin their higher education journey maintain good academic standing.
Wait! I’m on academic probation...Now What?

- If a student finds themselves on academic probation they should meet with a counselor ASAP to develop a game plan to get back on track to meeting their academic or career goals
- An appeal process is available if they lose priority
- Students will need to check with our Admissions office for more information
Some Special Considerations

- Former and current foster youth
- Active duty military and recent veterans will continue to receive the highest priority as provided by California law as long as they meet the outlined requirements
- EOPS and DSPS students who have completed orientation and assessment and have an educational plan in place will also receive high priority
The Reward

- With this new priority registration system students who are making progress toward their goals will be rewarded for their efforts.
- If they stay focused on their goals they should be able to get the classes they need to succeed.
- If students need further help understanding this process please call LAMC Counseling Department 818-364-7655 and make an appointment with a counselor today.
