IV. Other Business
   A. New Repeatability Limitation
      Said discussed the new Title V repeatability limitation with the committee. Based on these limitations, courses are no longer repeatable, and other alternates must be used if more repetition by students are necessary for skill development. Some of these options are leveling of courses and families of courses. The areas most impacted by these changes, Visual and Performing Arts, Music and Physical Education, have been contacted by the District Curriculum Committee and provided guidance to these options.

   B. Stand-Alone Training
      Said conducted annual training for the members and directed their attention to the highlights of the Power Point presentation on the subject. New members were asked to meet with him at a later date and review the material in more detail.

   C. Tech Review Retreat – The committee agreed on a tentative date of October 19 for the retreat. The retreat will be held in LRC-234 from 10 am to 2 pm. Said will send out more detailed information to the members at a later date.

V. Next Meeting
