STUDENT PERFORMANCE REQUIREMENTS:

Your final grade will be determined by your performance on the following requirements:

Exams: 200 points. A mid-term examination and a final examination that are equally weighted and non-comprehensive. They will be administered in a multiple choice format that will cover the text, lectures and videos. They are not open-book exams. This is equivalent to 2/3 of your final grade.

Quizzes: 60 points. Two 30-point quizzes composed of 15 questions each. The quizzes are outstanding for exam preparation and cannot be made up.

Participation and Attendance: 40 points.

Note: Although this class does not require a Research Paper writing assignment, I am available to review and provide suggestions on papers for other AJ classes that you may be concurrently assigned. Take advantage of my offer and see me in my office hour or make other arrangements well in advance of your due date.

ATTENDANCE AND OTHER CLASS POLICIES:

The Los Angeles Community College District has clearly distinguished several rules and regulations that students must conform to. Those policies are articulated as the Standards of Student Conduct and Disciplinary Action. Regular attendance is the only way to properly satisfy the course requirements. Students are expected to arrive for class on time. Cell phones and electronic devices shall be silent and stowed. You are required to make up missing lectures/discussions/class notes by contacting another student in the class and getting his/her notes. Please notify me of any conflicts. Exams cannot be made up unless there are extenuating circumstances (e.g.: hospitalization, death). Make friends with a class colleague and get the information from them if you can't make it to class. I utilize a traditional grading scale as follows:

A     270-300     B     240-269     C     210-239     D     180-209     F     -179

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY:

As a learning community of scholars, Los Angeles Mission College emphasizes the ethical responsibility of all its members to seek knowledge honestly and in good faith. Students are responsible for doing their own work, and academic dishonesty of any kind will not be tolerated. Violations of academic integrity include, but are not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, or misrepresentation of information in oral or written form. Such violations will be dealt with severely by the instructor and the college. Plagiarism means presenting someone else's idea or writing as if it were your own. If you use someone else's idea or writing, be sure the source is clearly documented. Other guidelines for acceptable student behavior are specified in the campus catalog.

AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT STATEMENT:

It is the policy of Mission College to make its services, facilities, programs, and accommodations accessible to all students, including people with disabilities, and comply fully with the provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. If a disability prevents you from fully using our facility or enjoying our services and programs, we would like your input and ideas on how we can serve you better. Any concerns, comments, or suggestions should be directed to Disabled Students Programs & Services (DSP&S), Telephone 818-364-7734 • TDD 818-364-7861.

SPECIAL ACCOMMODATIONS:

If you require special accommodations for a disability, religious holiday, or any other reason please inform your instructor(s) within the first week of the course and we will accommodate you if at all possible. For accommodations due to disability, you must consult with the Disabled Students Programs and Services Office after which we will abide by their recommendations.
