Course Description and Objectives: This course offers an introduction to basic grammar as it relates to writing and other communication skills. It covers parts of speech, sentence structure, types of phrases and clauses, verb tenses and agreement, noun possessives and plurals, pronoun usage, comparison, capitalization, punctuation, and other related topics.

Student Learning Outcomes: Upon successful completion of this course, a student will be able to

- ✓ label simple and advanced sentence patterns
- ✓ employ standard rules of pluralization and possession
- ✓ choose and spell verb tenses correctly
- ✓ apply principles of pronoun agreement and construct sentences with correct subject/verb agreement
- ✓ combine simple sentences into correctly punctuated compound and complex sentences.

I. Required Texts: Commanding Sentences by Helen Mills, Third Edition
Workbook for Developmental Communications 1 by Susan Polk

II. Homework Assignments: Read all materials and do all exercises as assigned

III. Attendance: Attendance is critical to your success. You may be dropped after three unexcused absences; it is your responsibility to call me if you cannot attend class. You are responsible for everything that occurred during your absence. It is up to you to contact a classmate or me for missed material. Please avoid arriving late, leaving early, and walking outside during class; these are unacceptable behaviors that distract others. Also, turn off all electronic devices during class.

IV. Grading

- A. In-class participation, attendance, and completion of homework assignments will be considered during grading.
- B. There will be a follow-up quiz for each unit we cover and occasional pop quizzes.
 - All quizzes will be given at the beginning of class
 - There will be no make-ups given for quizzes
- C. There will be a midterm covering the material presented during the first half of the semester and a final covering the material presented during the second half of the semester. To pass this course, you must achieve at least 70 percent of the possible points listed below.
 - Quizzes--10 points each
 - Midterm--100 points
 - Final--100 points
- D. Basis of Grading: Pass/No Pass

V. Important Dates

VI. Some important notes

- If you stop attending a class (or you wish to drop a class), you must drop the class yourself on or before November 18. Failure to do so may result in a grade of NO PASS in this class.
- Please make sure that the email address on file with the college is accurate; if you change your address, please update your email address by using the student portal.
- Please keep graded papers such as quizzes and tests in a safe place. You should keep them at least until final grades have been posted.
- If you are a student with a disability and require classroom accommodations, please see me immediately to discuss arrangements. The sooner I am aware that you are eligible for accommodations, the more quickly I will be able to provide them. If you have not done so already, you may also wish to contact the Disabled Students Programs & Services Office in Instructional Building 1018. Phone (818) 364-7732/TTD (818) 364-7861 and bring a letter and/or documentation stating the accommodations that are needed. This syllabus can be made available in alternate format upon request from DSPS at (818) 364-7732.
