The Mercury Reader and Pearson Café (My Skills Lab) Course ID# english00578

Course Description: This course in reading and writing designed to strengthen the student's basic communication skills, including grammar, spelling, punctuation, and sentence construction. Greatest emphasis is placed on the writing of competent paragraphs and short essays.

Student Learning Objectives:

At the end of the course, the student will be able to:		Method of Assessment
SLO#1	Produce an essay of at least 250 words, which has a thesis, an introduction, body, and conclusion. Sentence structure will be diversified.	Writing Final: The production of an essay in response to a writing prompt
SLO#2	Self edit and correct grammar, spelling and punctuation errors in his/her essays.	Writing final
SLO#3	Differentiate fact from opinion, identify and paraphrase the main ideas and supporting points in a reading, generalize meaning by recognizing and interpreting inferences, and predict meaning of vocabulary through contextual clues in readings.	In class exercise

Hints to success this class is designed to create a positive English experience for all students. With this in mind, students are invited to embrace this class fearlessly by asking questions of the instructor, the readings and classmates. To encourage discussion and participation, it is crucial to remain sensitive to the diverse backgrounds, personalities, and opinions of everyone. Class participation means intelligently responding to the instructor and other members of the class. All students are encouraged to respectfully challenge and/or disagree with the instructor, their classmates, or with the readings. Students who are successful come to class prepared with all assignments completed. Participation in class discussions serves to demonstrate ones knowledge of the assigned reading material. If students miss a class, always ask class peers what was covered and help each other by sharing class notes. All students are always encouraged to communicate with the instructor. I am here to assist each student succeed in English 21.

Class Peers:

Name_____ E-mail _____ Phone_____

Name_____ E-Mail _____ Phone_____

Students cannot receive a passing grade if, more than three class sessions are missed, or if students do not turn in a final exam or research paper. As an academic courtesy students are asked to turn off (not vibrate mode) cell phones.

Assignments: 4 essays (2 full pages), one Project Paper (3-4 full pages), Reading Response Journal, in-class assignments, quizzes, mid-term, and a final exam.

Journal: Journal entries are one (full) page long, endorsed; typed; double-spaced; one inch margins and journal entries are based on each Mercury Reader reading assignment.

Attendance: Successful students participate and attend each class with an inquisitive mind and spirit. Punctual and regular attendance is mandatory and necessary to be prepared for the various in-class assignments, discussions, and small group workshops. However, this is impossible without attending class, preparing and remaining abreast of assignments. If students have an extraordinary situation, and need to leave early or come to class late please see me. Regularly (meaning more than once) arriving late, taking extended breaks or leaving early may result in adjustments to the overall class grade at my discretion. If students are experiencing an emergency that requires missing classes or portions of that class, please let me know ASAP. Although students are absent, students are still responsible for all assignments and deadlines.

Workshops: Rough drafts for peer evaluation workshops are always typed and hand written drafts are never acceptable. Students are required to always attend class with a typed rough draft on workshop days. Participation in workshops is so helpful and proves a worthwhile exercise for the class.

Papers: Remember, all presentational papers must include at least four rough drafts (typed and revised). All papers are typed, double-spaced, and stapled, with one-inch margins; standard 12 point type. Use the MLA system for citations and documentation. No need to use plastic covers or holders; simply attach papers with a medium black paper clip. Endorse papers on the first page only; on the top left-hand corner as follows:

Last name, First name

English 21 (class day and time)

Assignment (e.g. Essay 1)

Date

Comments on essays will be extensive initially. I will address the two or three biggest concerns to improve the overall paper, but very often other revisions are necessary. All students are allowed to turn in two late essays, but this option does not pertain to the Research Papers, exams, or holiday weekends.

Plagiarism: Plagiarism is the use of another person's writings, ideas, and offering the work of others as your own, even if it is accidental.

*Plagiarism is a serious academic offense and will result in the letter grade of an "F" for the course. Turning in any written work or any part of a written work, written by another person, as your own work is consider Plagiarism.

*Failing to acknowledge, through proper citation, the source of ideas that are not your own.

*Failing to indicate paraphrases ideas or verbatim expressions that are not your own thoughts through proper citation.

*Downloading a paper from a website or cutting and pasting text from a website without properly citing the source

*If you did not write it and you hand it in under your name, you have committed plagiarism.

*If students are uncertain about plagiarism - just ask me for help.

Online Assignments: Pearson Café - My Skills Lab.com. These are required exercises. Students must attempt to master 70% of all items from the lists after you take your diagnostic test. This is an important part of your grade. Most of the things are covered in-class, but do not wait for that. Online tutorials at My Skills Lab will guide and teach students through what they need to know.
