Writing is essential to your life. Everyone needs to be able to communicate effectively in writing to family, friends, peers, teachers, co-workers and supervisors. Your ability to write may even directly impact your future employment.

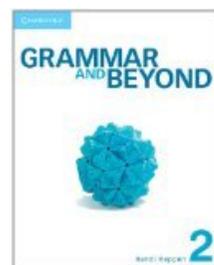

In this class you will learn how to write well-constructed paragraphs in English. We will read, identify and analyze the components of well-written paragraphs, and learn the process of writing from brainstorming and outlining to rough drafts, editing and final drafts. We will also examine relevant grammar topics to improve your writing skills.

This class will prepare you for higher level ESL writing courses and build your confidence in using English.

Student Learning Objectives for ESL 4A

Upon the successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Analyze a prompt, formulate a thesis, organize ideas around a thesis, and produce an outline;
2. Produce a cohesive 200 word paragraph
3. Utilize compound/complex sentences to express thoughts; and
4. Recognize different types of paragraphs including: definition, process, descriptive, narrative, classification, compare/contrast and cause/effect.

Grading: This class is a credit/no credit course. Students will receive either "P" (=pass) or "N" (=not pass). No letter grade is given. Students must have an average of 70% or higher to pass. Students must do the coursework, participate in class and pass the final exam to receive credit. Grades will be determined as follows:

Journals, Homework & Participation	10%
Quizzes	20%
Writing Assignments	45%
Final exam	25%
Total	100%

Journals: Like any skill, writing improves with practice. One way you will practice writing is in your journal. The more you write, the better you will get! Throughout the semester, you will keep a written journal with entries assigned for homework or during class. Bring your journal to class every day to refer to your responses during class discussions and for homework review. Journals will be collected periodically during the semester and graded on completion of entries. Late journals will receive half credit.

Homework: Practicing what you have learned is an important step in the learning process. Homework assignments will be given to reinforce grammar topics learned in class, or for additional writing practice. Homework is due at the beginning of the next class and must be completed before class begins. Late homework will receive half credit.

Writing Assignments: In this class you will learn how to write great paragraphs! All writing assignments will be done in class so it is very important for you to attend all classes. Writing assignments will be done in steps over several days with editing, revising and feedback, to make your final draft the best it can be! If you are absent from class, you will miss a step and receive a lower grade. I will not accept writing assignments brought from home. I will throw out the lowest score, so your lowest writing assignment score will not count towards your class grade.

Quizzes: There will be grammar quizzes throughout the semester. I will let you know ahead of time when a quiz is scheduled. Please make every effort to be in class when the quizzes are given so you don't get behind. If you are unavoidably absent, quizzes can be made up during office hours the next class day after the quiz was given.

Extra Credit Opportunity: In the learning center on the computers is an excellent grammar program called "Focus on Grammar" If you work on this program for ten hours or more during this semester, I will drop your lowest quiz grade.

Final Exam: The final exam will be on Monday, Dec 9th 10:00 am - 12:00 pm.

The final exam will be an in-class writing assignment in which you will demonstrate the writing skills you have learned this semester. You will have two hours to write a well-organized paragraph on a given topic, using correct English grammar and appropriate vocabulary. You must pass the final exam to pass the class.

Attendance: We have so much to learn this semester, and you are not going to want to miss any of it! Attendance and participation are crucial for learning. I will arrive early to class and be ready to begin at 8:50 am and I expect you to arrive on time and stay for the entire class time, too. The college rule for attendance is: after 6 hours of absence (=2 class meetings) you may be officially dropped from the course. Arriving late to class, coming back late from the break, or leaving class early, are disruptive and distracting to the rest of the students.

Please schedule out-of-class appointments at times when class is not in session.

Break: The class will take a break for 15 minutes at approximately 10:15. Please return promptly and be ready to resume class at 10:30.

Dropping the Class: If you decide to drop the class, you must complete the proper paperwork with the Admissions office. If you simply stop coming to class, your name may remain on the roster and you will receive a "No Credit" for the class. This will show up on your transcript.

A new state policy in effect as of Summer 2012 limits students to 3 attempts per course. Receiving a grade or "W" for a course counts as an attempt, regardless of when the course was taken. Withdrawal by Sep 8 (avoiding a "W") will not count as an attempt.□

Classroom Rules: No food or drinks are permitted in the classroom (except bottled water). I encourage you to bring a bottle of water to keep your brain hydrated! All cell phones must be on silent during class. Please step out of the classroom to answer emergency calls only.

Please, no texting during class - it is rude and distracting. Please be respectful of others and only speak English in class. Please do not talk while the instructor is talking. We have a large class and a little noise from everyone can be very disruptive. (Please review the Standards of Student Conduct as listed in the College Catalog and in the Schedule of Classes for additional school rules and policies). Also, please note that only registered students may attend class - you may not bring your children or other guests to class with you.

Academic Honesty: All work must be your own. Do not copy your homework, quizzes or writing assignments from another person or any outside source. Do not copy from a book, the Internet, a magazine, newspaper, dictionary or another student. Plagiarism is defined as: the act of using another person's words or ideas without giving credit to that person and claiming someone else's work as your own. This is a serious offense in all schools. If you copy, cheat or plagiarize, you will automatically receive a zero on that assignment and could risk expulsion from the college.

Disability Accommodation: Students with a verified disability who may need a reasonable accommodation(s) for this class are encouraged to notify the instructor and contact the DSPS Office as soon as possible. For appointments and information call (818) 364-7732 or visit <http://www.lamission.edu/dsps/> All information will remain confidential.

Tips for Success:

- ◆ Practice English outside of class! Read newspapers, magazines, books, and websites in English!! Listen to English radio stations!! Watch TV programs and DVDs in English!! (Turn on the subtitles in English and read along with the dialogue!) Talk to your friends in English!! The more effort you put in, the more successful you will be!!
- ◆ Attend class every day and on time. Don't leave early. Come prepared and participate.
- ◆ Get enough sleep at home so that you can come to class refreshed and alert. Eat a healthy breakfast and drink plenty of water throughout the day.
- ◆ Go to the Learning Center to work with the Writing Tutors and Reading lab.
- ◆ Visit me during my "student drop-in hours". (I always have a bowl of chocolate!)

Right now, get some phone numbers of classmates, so if you are absent you can find out what you missed in class, or just to get in touch to practice your English.
