EXAMS and Quizzes: Exam questions reflect information from the textbook, lecture, and films shown in class. The exams and quizzes are timed will include multiple choice questions (primarily), yet with some true/false. Short answer question will appear on quizzes only. Quizzes will be given during a class time that is determined as the class material is covered. The quizzes will be administered to all students at the same time in the same classroom environment. The exception is with the DSPS (disabilities) office or if the quiz is a take home quiz. Please do not ask to take the quiz early or late within the class time. There are NO MAKEUPS. Remember, you may drop, or eliminate a quiz score. Therefore, if you miss, or do not do well on a quiz, it will be dropped from your total count.

Internet Literacy Paper: LIBRARY HEALTH WORKSHOP REQUIRED. Your 40pt Critique paper will not be accepted without your "stamped" library workshop paper attached. To get this, you must take the 1 hour health workshop on internet literacy given at Mission Library, or take it online at the library website. You only take this once during the semester. You must complete the workshop to earn the "stamped" confirmation paper that must be stapled to your paper and copy of the article as you hand it in. The paper is due on or before the due date. The paper is due Oct.31, 2012. The instructions and the rubric for this paper can be found on my website.

Briefly, your task is to find a full article on a health topic by using the Internet. After reading your selected article, summarize it and comment on it by sharing your thoughts. The paper must only be one page in length. It must be typed in a 12pt letter size, single spaced. The paper, attached article and the workshop stamped certificate must be handed to me directly before or on the due date during the class period. No late papers are accepted, so please do not ask to turn it in later than class time on the due date. Please do not email them to me, leave it in my box or in my office.

Participation: All students begin with 10 points in participation. Only if you contribute to class disruption, will points be lost. One point will be deducted if such disruptions as talking during lecture, films, or while another student is speaking. Other examples include, using the wrong size scan tron, cell phone or laptop makes noise, if food, drink other than water, children or guests (including animals) are brought into the classroom, if constant noise is created by shuffling papers or tapping compulsively, going in and out of the classroom.

If you exit the room, and plan to return, make it unknown by being quiet and hold the door. Ten points will not be added to your total if you do not participate in more than 4 class periods.

Class information:

1. Scantrons – These are needed for quizzes and exams unless otherwise told. These are available at the bookstore. One package contains several scantrons, the large has two useable sides.
2. Being punctual is appreciated and avoids disrupting class. Attending class helps students succeed, but is not required. Participation is key to success and tied to point gain or loss. Roll is taken for records regarding administrative effectiveness and participation accountability.
3. There is no 'extra credit'. All students have equal opportunity to gain points. Concentrate on doing your best work on all assignments at all times. Manage your time to meet all deadlines.
4. Due dates-. There will be no late papers accepted. If you cannot come to class to hand in your paper, arrange to have a fellow student bring it in, or turn it in before the due date. I only accept a paper that is ready for final grade. I do not "proof" read for students. It is my policy to hold all students to the same standards.
5. If you have a learning disability ,or circumstance that is a concern, which may act as a barrier for success, please express it to me early in the semester, such as the first 2 weeks of class. I will be more than happy to discuss options available within our institutional environment .
6. The student is responsible to register, add, drop or/ and confirm their class position.

Classroom/ facility rules of Mission College HFAC
