COURSE REQUIREMENTS: Each student is required to attend and stay the full class session. Students are expected to come to class prepared to work on projects. This is not a time to socialize. The college catalog explains a student's requirements for attendance and how non attendance can result in a drop. All students must attend and sign in each session.

Academic Integrity is required of all students. The college catalog outlines this subject Any student caught not working on their own original work will be subject to an F grade in the course. No exceptions. “Sharing” is not allowed in all interior design courses at Mission College.

After signing in, students may, if needed, go to the computers in the library. You are required to come to class again at the end of the session to sign in again.

Please come to class prepared each week with projects and homework assignments from current interior design classes.

Bring an additional copy of your syllabus from all interior design classes you are enrolled in to keep on file in the classroom. This is for instructor reference of work needing completion in other courses.

Grading:

No absence, comes prepared and uses time wisely – A

2 absences, comes prepared and uses time wisely – B

4 absences, comes prepared and uses time wisely –C

6 absences, comes prepared and uses time wisely –D

Comes prepared, more than 6 absences –F

IF A STUDENT IS STILL ON THE ROLL SHEET AT THE END OF THE COURSE AND HAS NOT DROPPED THE CLASS PREVIOUSLY, AN F WILL BE ASSIGNED. IT IS THE STUDENT'S RESPONSIBILITY TO DROP A CLASS FROM NON-ATTENDANCE.

Good luck and remember you are the one responsible for “earning” your grade! I hope it is an “A”!
