Teaching Philosophy:

My goal is for you to be successful in this class while strengthening your skills as a life-long learner. If you run into trouble, fear you're falling behind or simply do not understand something, you should never hesitate to come see me during my office hours. Asking questions during class is, of course, welcomed as well. However, I understand some people may be too shy to ask a question in front of other students. So if you have a question but are too shy to ask during class, contact me, and we'll figure out the answers together.

Course Requirements:

- 1) Syllabus Quiz: (10 points) Due 2/20, by 9pm

There is an online, untimed quiz covering the contents of THIS syllabus. The quiz is 10 multiple choice questions.

- 2) Participation and Attendance: (30 points)

Since Sociology is the study of people and their behavior, your participation is not only welcomed, but required. Attendance is mandatory in this class and points can be earned for students with two absences or less. I will allow two absences for the semester, then will deduct 10 points from your total points in the class every time you are absent for a total of 30 points. Students with excessive absences will not earn attendance points and students with three or more absences can be excluded from the class. You are responsible for dropping the class through the Admissions Office Online. Please be disciplined about your education and attend consistently. Enrolled students who are absent on the first day of class are subject to being dropped by the instructor.

Please be on time and plan to stay for the entire class. A late arrival or early departure--10 minutes or more -- is the equivalent of one absence. No walking in and out of class. Quizzes will frequently be administered during the first five minutes of class. Should you arrive late, you will not get credit for the quiz/class. Scores on quizzes go towards your participation and attendance points.

3) Survey Research Project and Presentation: (40 points) Due 3/11

4) Scholarly Articles Assignment (30 points) Due 4/15

5) Social Issue Paper: (40 points) Due 5/13

6) Exams (2 Midterm Exams and One Final Exam): (150 points total)

All exams will be in class exams which will focus on the general issues covered in class and the reading. Please note that not all material covered in the reading will be covered in class and vice versa. Thus, you are responsible for both reading and in-class material. The exams will consist of multiple choice questions. The first midterm covers Chapters 1-5 and is worth 50 points. The second midterm covers Chapters 14, 7, 8 and 10 and is worth 45 points. The final exam covers Chapters 11, 12, 13, and 18 and is worth 55 points.

All papers must be typed, using fonts no bigger than 12 with margins no larger than one inch. Please use spell check. Late papers will not be accepted. Emailed papers will not be accepted – all work must be handed in on time in class. If you cannot make it to class the day something is due, you will need to make arrangements with a friend to get the class to the professor at the beginning of class.

Classroom Etiquette: Studying Sociology involves discussing topics that may be uncomfortable pertaining to religion, race, gender, age, pornography, sexual orientation and other topics will be discussed. Respect should be given to peers and your instructor at all times. Just remember, treat others as you would like to be treated. Arrive to class on time and stay the entire period. Turn off all cellular phones and sound-emitting electronics upon entering the classroom, unless otherwise given permission. No video or audio recording in class, unless special permission is given.

Computers: You may use a laptop to take notes in class, however, if you do, you must sit in the front row.

Study Skills: (or, how to succeed): First, don't be intimidated. There will be many terms/concepts with which you're not familiar. This is natural. You're here to learn, after all! Second, read the material, and when necessary, re-read the material. Highlight key points in your book, make notes in the margins. Third, come to class! Listen. Take notes. If I write something on the board, you should too! Ask questions! If you don't understand something, know that you are not the only one. Fourth, do your work well and on time. Don't wait until the last minute to begin assignments.

General Policies:

Cheating- unauthorized material used during an examination (including electronic devices), changing answers after work has been graded, taking an exam for another student, forging or altering attendance sheets or other documents in the course, looking at another student's paper/scantron/essay/computer or exam with or without their approval is considered cheating.

Plagiarism- Plagiarism is defined as the act of using ideas, words, or work of another person or persons as if they were one's own, without giving proper credit to the original sources. This includes definitions found online on Wikipedia, materials from blogs, twitter, or other similar electronic resources. Whether the material be a paragraph, a sentence, or a part thereof, you will receive a zero for the first offence for the assignment or test in question. Any further offenses may result in expulsion from the class, or more as determined by the disciplinary action of Student Services.

Recording devices in the classroom - Section 78907 of the California Education Code prohibits the use of any electronic audio or video recording devices, without prior consent of the instructor (including cell phones, laptops, MP3 players, and more). All electronic devices are strictly prohibited during exams.

Update Email and emergency contact information:

To update your email address and home phone number, please login to the District Student Information System at this link: <https://eweb3.laccd.edu/WebStudent/signon.asp>. To update or add your cell phone number to the BBC system, please login to LAMC Student Portal at this link: <https://mymission.lamission.edu/studentlogin.aspx>. This number will be used only for emergencies.

Reasonable Accommodation- If you are a student with a disability and require accommodations, please send me a private email. The sooner I am aware of your eligibility for accommodations, the quicker I will be able to assist the DSP&S Office in providing them. For students requiring accommodations, the DSP&S Office at Mission College provides special assistance in areas like: registering for courses, specialized tutoring, note-taking, mobility assistance, special instruction, testing assistance, special equipment, special materials, instructor liaisons, community referrals and job placement. If you have not done so already, you may also wish to contact the DSP&S Office in Instructional Building 1018 (phone 818/364-7732 TTD 818/364-7861) and bring a letter stating the accommodations that are needed.

Medical Conditions-If you have any conditions that I need to know about, please notify me immediately by email and provide me with an emergency phone number.

This syllabus is a guide to use throughout this course and is subject to change at the instructor's discretion. Please do not hesitate to ask for assistance, it is my goal that you succeed in this class.
