Method of Instruction:

I hear and I forget. I see and I remember. I do and I understand. – Confucius

This quote is the driving force behind the method of instruction for this course. Being able to communicate in interpersonal relationships is a skill therefore this course requires thoughtful preparation and active engagement!

Teaching Philosophy:

My door is always open. If you have questions, doubts, or concerns you can always contact me via email or phone. If you would like to meet in person, we can meet during my office hours or by appointment. Teaching is a partnership. You do your part and I will do mine to help you. The earlier you ask for help, the more likely you will be able to get back on track. I am here if you need help but you need to let me know you need it!

Grading Procedure:

Grade	Percentage	Points	How many points can I miss for a ___ grade?
A	90 – 100%	360 - 400	You can only miss 40 points for an “A”.
B	80 – 89%	320 - 359	You can only miss 80 points for a “B”.

Total Points		400

Course Assignment Overview:

- Participation (12%): Participation is a key component of this course. To receive participation points, students must be present, on-time, and ready to engage in classroom discussion and activities. To effectively participate in classroom discussion students should complete homework assignments and course reading materials. Students who are not prepared and who do not actively engage in classroom discussion or activities will not receive full participation points. Note that points are not just given for showing up. You must participate in discussion and in-class activities. Absences and tardiness will result in lower participation points. For each class missed you will receive a minimum of a five point deduction.
- Homework (16%): Each week you will receive homework in the form of a reading assignment, discussion questions or other type of activity. Homework on average should take you between 30-60 minutes to complete. Failure to complete or turn in homework will result in lost points. Once graded, I will return your homework. Be sure to keep track of the points missed and received.
- Communicator Self Assessment Assignment Part 1 (5%): This assignment will require you to analyze your current communication skills and determine what level you want your skills to eventually be.
- Self- Concept Investigation Paper (7%): This assignment will require you to investigate how you perceive yourself and how others perceive you. You will examine your self-concept and see how your self-concept affects your perception and ultimately how you interpret communication on how you communicate with others.
- Reflection Dialogue Papers (18%): You will be asked to complete three Reflection Dialogue papers, worth 25 points each. Each Reflection Dialogue will focus on a different interaction and different type of relationship. You will provide an overview of the dialogue that occurred and dissect what is going on in the dialogue. You will provide examples and explanations to demonstrate your understanding of the communication concepts learned in class. The first Reflection Dialogue will be on a familial relationship (parent-child, sibling-sibling, etc.). The second Reflection Dialogue will be on an intimate or personal relationship (significant other or close friendship). The third Reflection Dialogue will be on a work type of relationship (boss-employee, peer to peer, etc.). Your reflection dialogues will be similar to the Reflection Dialogues found in your textbook.

- Exams (25%): You will have two exams on course lecture and assigned readings. The exams will contain multiple choice and short answer essay questions.
- Case Study Group Presentation (7%): This assignment will require you to work with 3-4 classmates on a group presentation. Each group will be given a case study in which your team will need to analyze the case study data, explain possible communication issues, provide a recommendation of your findings and demonstrate the recommendations you prescribe for the given case scenario.
- Communicator Self Assessment Part 2 (7%): This assignment will require you to analyze what level your communication skills were at the beginning of the semester and compare them to where you are now. You will discuss what you learned and what skills you plan to work on in the future.

Los Angeles Mission College Policies:

LA Mission College Attendance Policy (p. 46):

The student is expected to attend every meeting of all classes for which he or she is registered. A student absent from classes for emergency reasons must inform his or her instructor of the reason for the absence.

Students who have pre-registered for a class and who do not attend the first meeting of the class may forfeit their right to a place in the class. Students should call the instructor's office to inform the instructor of the circumstances related to the absence. The instructor will then decide if the reasons provided for the absence are appropriate for allowing the student to remain in class. Mitigating circumstances may be considered by the instructor. Whenever absences "in hours" exceed the number of hours the class meets per week, the student may be excluded from class by the instructor.

It is the student's responsibility to officially drop from any class he/she does not plan to continue to attend. Any drops or exclusions that occur between the end of the 4th week and the end of the 14th week will result in a "W" on the student's record. Drops are not permitted beyond the end of the 14th week. An evaluative grade ("A", "B", "C", "D", "F", "CR", or "NC") will be assigned to students who are enrolled past the end of the 14th week. After the last day of the 14th week (or 75% of the time the class is scheduled, whichever is less) the student may petition to withdraw from class demonstrating extenuating circumstances.

*Incompletes are only given when all requirements are met.

Standards of Student Conduct:

Academic dishonesty and disobedience will not be tolerated. Any Violations of the Standards of Student Conduct will result in penalties to be determined by College Authorities. To learn more about the standards of student conduct review the Standards of Student Conduct and Disciplinary Action located on page 61-63 of the LA Mission College 2012-2013 Catalog. Additional classroom guidelines will be determined as a class.

Student with Special Needs:

If you are a student with a disability and require classroom accommodations, please see me to discuss arrangements. The sooner I am aware that you are eligible for accommodations, the quicker I will be able to provide them. If you have not done so already, you may also wish to contact the DSP&S Office in Instruction Building 1018 (phone #818.364. 7732/ TTD 818.364.7861) and bring a letter stating the accommodations that are needed.

Late Assignments NOT Accepted:

All Assignments need to be turned in class and on time. Late Assignments are not accepted. If you have a legitimate and documented excuse, you can turn in your Assignment before the due date.

Student’s Responsibility:

If you miss a session or are late, you will need to contact a fellow student to find out what you missed. Keep in mind that absences and being tardy affect your participation scores.
