Text: American Government and Politics Today: Essentials 2013 - 2014 Edition, 17th Edition with California Politics by Bardes, Shelley, Schmidt, Gerston, and Christensen.

Description:

The primary objective of this class is to acquaint students with the basic tenets of the American political system, showing the extent to which politics and the government is a part of our daily lives. In order to realize this goal, we will explore how American government was established, the ideology behind this establishment, and the meaning of the American constitution. Analysis of American government branches (the executive, legislative, and the judiciary), in addition to political participation, interest groups, and the media will also take place.

Important! Drop Date Information

The deadline to drop without a "W" is the last day of Week 2 (of the semester), which is Sunday, February 23rd for Spring 2014. If you must drop a course, drop before the specified deadline for dropping a class without a grade of "W." Dropping after Week 2 will result in a "W" on your transcript. The last date to drop a class with a "W" is May 11th. Effective since July 1, 2012 students now have just 3 attempts to pass a class. If a student gets a "W" or grade of "D", "F", "I", or "NP" in a class, that will count as an attempt. A student's past record of course attempts district wide will also be considered. Therefore, before the end of Week 2 you should carefully consider if you can reasonably manage this course with the other factors in your life (e.g. work, family, course load). If you think you will not be able to complete this course with a C or better, drop by Sunday, February 23rd. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to talk to me.

Short-term classes: Drop dates for short-term classes are not the same as full semester classes. For specific deadline dates, please contact the Admissions Office.

Attendance: I will be taking attendance officially for the 1st 3 weeks of class, until March 3rd. After that, I will not take attendance for the rest of the semester, except on exam days. Each student is still responsible to come to class as scheduled.

If you do miss a class which we will be having an exam and you have a valid excuse for missing the exam (family emergency, sickness, etc.) we can make arrangements for you to make up the exam. Otherwise, missing an exam can't be made up and will result in a zero (0) on the exam.

Remember, it is your responsibility, as an enrolled student, that if you decide not to attend anymore class sessions, you need to drop the class. Don't assume that I will notice you are not attending the class at all and I will drop you from the class for you. If you don't drop the class on your own, you may receive an 'F' in the course, which will bring down your entire GPA and could crush your hopes, dreams, and aspirations! Please, don't make me do that to you!! Please, be responsible, and drop the course if you plan to no longer to attend the course.

Cheating- unauthorized material used during an examination (including electronic devices), changing answers after work has been graded, taking an exam for another student, forging or altering attendance sheets or other documents in the course, looking at another student's paper/scantron/essay/computer or exam with or without their approval is considered cheating. Any student caught cheating will receive a zero for the assignment/exam and referred to the Department chair and/or Student Services for further disciplinary action.

Plagiarism- Plagiarism is defined as the act of using ideas, words, or work of another person or persons as if they were one's own, without giving proper credit to the original sources. This includes definitions found online on Wikipedia, materials from blogs, twitter, or other similar electronic resources. The following examples are intended to be representative, but not all inclusive:

- failing to give credit by proper citations for others ideas and concepts, data and information, statements and phrases, and/or interpretations and conclusions.
- failing to use quotation marks when quoting directly from another, whether it be a paragraph, a sentence, or a part thereof
- Paraphrasing the expressions or thought by others without appropriate quotation marks or attribution
- Representing another's artistic/scholarly works such as essays, computer programs, photographs, paintings, drawings, sculptures or similar works as one's own.

First offense, you will receive a zero for the assignment in question. Any further offenses may result in expulsion from the class, as determined by the disciplinary action from the Office of Student Services.

Recording devices in the classroom- Section 78907 of the California Education Code prohibits the use of any electronic audio or video recording devices, without prior consent of the instructor. (including cell phones, laptops, MP3 players, and more)

Reasonable Accommodations: If you are a student with a disability and require accommodations, please send me a private email. The sooner I am aware of your eligibility for accommodations, the quicker I will be able to assist the DSP&S Office in providing them. For students requiring accommodations, the DSP&S Office at Mission College provides special assistance in areas like: registering for courses, specialized tutoring, note-taking, mobility assistance, special instruction, testing assistance, special equipment, special materials, instructor liaisons, community referrals and job placement. If you have not done so already, you may also wish to contact the DSP&S Office in Instructional Building 1018 (Phone: (818) 364-7732 TTD: (818) 364-7861), and bring a letter stating the accommodations that are needed.

IMPORTANT NOTICE!!!:

Grades will not be affected by the political views or comments of the students. To show respect for your fellow students' beliefs, views, and ideas is the number one priority!

Requirements:

Three Exams

Each exam will be worth one hundred points. The exams will consist of multiple choice, true or false, and six essay questions, which you will pick one of the questions to answer. They will cover material from the text and lectures. There will also be review sessions of before each exam. The final exam WILL NOT be cumulative. A week before each exam, I will give everyone in class via email, a study guide for the exam.

Exam #1: March 6th

Exam #2: April 3rd

Exam #3, The Final Exam: June 5th

Short Writing Papers

There will be two short writing exercises, worth 50 points each, for a total of 100 points. These papers are designed to be critical writing exercises exploring your opinion and analyze issues involving American politics. The minimum amount of pages for each writing exercise will be three pages, double spaced. Both of them will be due on May 22nd.

Grade Evaluation:

Grade evaluation will be based solely on performance and quality of work of the exams and short writing exercises. The grade breakdown for this course, with a total available maximum of 400 points, will be the following:

- A – 360 – 400 points
- B – 320 – 359 points
- C-- 280 – 319 points
- D-- 201 – 279 points
- F – 200 points or less

Lecture Notes

As college students, I am sure everyone has had sufficient experience taking notes during lecture. Before each class every week, I will e-mail all of you a copy of my lecture notes that I will use to lecture the class that week. Please note that all the material that will be covered in the lectures will be available in the lecture notes. These lecture notes will be very comprehensive and useful to all of you to help study for the class and to review the lecture just given. I give you my lecture notes to not only help all of you out with understanding the material and studying, but as a courtesy service to make sure that all of you have a every tool available to you to succeed in this class and do the best you possibly can. In addition, I will allow everyone permission to record my lectures, should you need to with a portable tape recorder.

At the end of the semester you will

1. Describe the powers, roles, functions, and limitations of the duties of Federal, state, and local governments and the impact on individuals.
2. Analyze current American domestic and foreign policies and be able to put them into a historical perspective
3. Differentiate initiatives, referendums and recalls in California Constitution and laws.
