Denim Day:
A rape prevention education campaign that raises community awareness about the devastating impact of sexual violence and how to prevent it.
SHOW YOU CARE BY WHAT YOU WEAR
WEAR DENIM

Wed, April 24, 2013
9-1 pm, QUAD MISSION COLLEGE
The Clothesline Project commemorates a survivor or victim of sexual assault.

The Clothesline Project is a visual display that bears witness to sexual violence against women and men.
During the public display, a clothesline is hung with shirts, which are decorated to represent a particular survivor’s experience.
Students are invited to share their own experiences with violence by writing on the shirts.
R.I.P. TO ALL THAT DIED OUT OF GANG VIOLENCE!!! STOP PEACE THE WEDNESDAY!!!
AGE 13 - RAPED by a "friend"
Me & My 3 sisters were raped by our uncle!
As part of Denim Day, Sociology students are required to complete many assignments including:

- Interviewing Faculty, Staff, Administration
- Researching campus security
- Conducting a scavenger hunt on Student Services with a focus on sexual harassment responses, crisis counseling, referral systems, and violence prevention
- Researching careers which focus on victim advocacy and public safety
Denim Day 2012
SHOW YOU CARE
BY WHAT YOU WEAR
WEAR DENIM

Wed, April 24, 2013
9-1 pm, QUAD
LAMC
SELF DEFENSE DEMONSTRATION & TRAINING

12 -1 PM in QUAD

 Entire Community Invited !!

Presented by LAMC PE Department