Program Description:

The Associate of Arts in History develops an understanding of the interaction between human behavior, culture, and the environment, the forces that have created our modern world. The degree program ensures that students will gain an understanding of important ideas and events in different eras and in diverse regions. In an increasingly complex world, the study of history provides an intellectual toolkit that includes the essential skills of critical thinking, research, problem solving and communicating clearly and persuasively, the hallmarks of a liberal arts education. Most associate degrees in history are considered initial steps towards a continuing education; it is particularly appropriate for those pursuing careers in teaching and law. Degree requirements include: (1) completion of 60 CSU transferable units, including the 18 units in the major and the completion of either IGETC or CSU GE; (2) a minimum GPA of 2.0.
