

History 11 (7234) (UC: CSU) 3 Units

Political and Social History Of the United States I

This course is a general survey of the social and political developments that shaped the history of the United States from pre-Columbian times to Reconstruction. Meets the American History and Institutions requirements for the California State University system and the Social and Behavioral Sciences requirements for all universities.

The Weekend College classes combine online assignments and weekend class meetings in an accelerated format, covering a lot of material in a short period of time. You must complete all components to successfully pass the class. The course requirements are in the instructor's syllabus. See login instructions below. The term is just eight weeks, and you can expect to spend 10 to 12 hours per week completing the assignments. Schedule time in advance for reading the textbook, completing online assignments, and attending class each weekend.
