1. What courses/certificates/programs have you assessed this past semester?
   For SLOs, we finished out third round of assessments by assessing the last course which needed to be assessed. The course is English 240 and is only offered once a year.

   We also participated in the aesthetic PLO assessment. Two English 102 courses and one English 205 were part of the effort.

2. Summarize the analysis of your assessment results for courses in your area.
   English 240: The course received a rubric score of 82%

3. How have the results of your assessments been shared and discussed among the members of your program? (Provide dates and any minutes of meetings.)
   There was a report out at our Oct. 25th dept. meeting.

4. How have the results of your assessments been shared and discussed with members of your advisory committee (if vocational program)?
   N/A

5. Based on the discussion and analysis of your assessment results, what changes have you made or do you plan to make? (Please provide dates, description of changes, and person responsible.)
   The change for English 240 is one of didactic focus, in that In the future, more lecture and discussion time will be dedicated to the interconnection between plot and character development and to comparing and contrasting these elements in the work of literature and the film.

   This fall we implemented a pilot program of accelerated English offerings as a result of past assessments. English 28 and 101 are offered as a 6 unit block.
This fall we also developed videos to prepare students for the assessment exam since in past SLO assessments it seemed that students were not placing as high as they should.

6. What resource requests are planned as a result of the assessments? None

7. Have the assessment results been posted on the online system? Yes

8. For the PLOs, the students did rather well in meeting the aesthetic PLO.

   We found that the PLO matched the content and focus of our classes very nicely. Some of our papers are posted on the PLO aesthetic website.

Written responses to these questions are due by Friday, December 21, 2012. These answers will be important evidence for accreditation.
