COOPERATIVE TITLE V
LOS ANGELES MISSION COLLEGE
IN PARTNERSHIP WITH
LOYOLA MARYMOUNT UNIVERSITY,
SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

PROJECT OVERVIEW
About Cooperative Title V Project

- 5-year grant from U.S. Department of Education
- Award period from Oct. 2006 to Sep. 2011
- Goals:
  - Increase transfer rate of Hispanic and other minority students
  - Increase graduation rate of Hispanic and other minority students
    - Development of Teacher Preparation/Pipeline Program
- 4 main grant activities
Activity 1: Strengthen Support for Transfer

- Articulation of courses and programs
- Review curriculum and course outlines
  - A.A. Liberal Studies Degree in Multiple Subject Teacher Prep est. Fall 2008
  - Personal Development 40 (3 units): College Success for Future Teachers est. Summer 2008
  - Directed Study (1 to 2 units) to start in Fall 2009
- Continuous collaboration with the Transfer Center
Activity 2: Strengthen Support Services and Increase Transfer Students into Teacher Prep Programs

- Development of Teacher Prep/Pipeline Program
  - Orientation and Bridging Programs
  - Dedicated Transfer Specialist at Mission and Academic Enrichment Coordinator at LMU
  - Workshops and Events (i.e. CBEST, CSET, Transfer Day, Workshops on Credentialing, Financial Aid/Scholarship Information)
  - Mentoring and Tutoring
  - Teacher Resource Library
Activity 3: Strengthen Institutional Programs and Processes

- Student tracking and evaluation
  - LiveText at LMU
  - ImageNow at Mission

- High school and community outreach
  - Enabling parents, families and communities
  - Developing financial aid safety net
  - Attracting students to the teaching field

- Teaching Career Center
Activity 4: Strengthen, Revise, and Increase Ongoing Technology Initiatives

- Improved communication materials
  - TPP Website
  - Online orientation
  - New paper and web-based informational pieces

- Electronic portfolio

- Faculty and staff development
Cooperative Title V:
Strengthening Transfer of Hispanic and Other Minority Students
Development of Teacher Preparation Program

Student Services:
- Transfer Center
- Counseling Office
- Career Center
- Articulation
- Financial Aid Office
- Admissions and Records
- Outreach and Recruitment

Academic Affairs:
- Curriculum Development
- Faculty Development

Institutional Research and IT:
- Institutional Analyst
- Software and Hardware Review