

LIBSCI 101 (Section 0332) Spring 2014 SYLLABUS (1 UNIT)

Instructor: Sheila MacDowell, MLIS. E-mail: macdowsa@lamission.edu
Phone: (818) 364-7752. Office Hours: By appointment.

Short term 10 week class (2/20 - 4/24) Fridays 10-11:50 AM LRC 205

COURSE DESCRIPTION: Students learn to use research tools found in most libraries to gather, organize, and evaluate information from various sources, including computer databases, catalogs, indexes, books, periodicals, and the Internet.

No textbook required for purchase. Textbook and materials will be supplied for in-class use.

Student Learning Outcomes: (SLO's) On successful completion of this course, a student will be able to:

- Apply effective research strategies to find and evaluate print and online sources on an identified topic.
- Cite sources correctly following MLA or APA citation style.

Institutional Learning Outcome #2: (ILO's) Students will demonstrate information competency by combining aspects of library literacy, research methods and technological literacy. It includes consideration of ethical and legal implications of information and requires the application of both critical thinking and communication skills. Evidence will be the ability to find, evaluate, use and communicate information in all its various formats.

Academic Honesty: Plagiarism is the use of another person's words as if they were your own. Plagiarism will result in a failing assignment and possibly failing the class. Students are expected to follow the Standards of Student Conduct as outlined in the LAMC Catalog.

Checking email: Students should check their e-mail frequently, for messages from the instructor.

Time Requirements: 1hr50min in-person class time and one hour per week to work on gathering resources for your final project. Two-three hours to complete library visit.

Technical access and skills: Students will need access to a computer and Internet connection outside of class time. An email account that they check regularly and Word- processing program. Students who do not have regular computer access may use computers in the campus Learning Resource Center or in the Library. Be sure to save the library visit report and the final assignment on a flash drive.

This syllabus is subject to change if the need arises. All changes will be communicated to class participants.

Grading Standards: 90-100 points = A; 80-89 points = B; 70-79 points = C; 60-69 points = D; Below 59 points = F (10 extra credit points available).

Attendance & Participation.

This is a one unit class, transferable to any CSU or UC University. Each class meeting is important. Students are excluded or dropped for non-attendance at first class meeting.

Points are deducted for arriving late or leaving early. Late assignments are not accepted.

Students are responsible for dropping or withdrawing from the class to avoid an "F" grade if they stop attending class.

Dropping this class: If a student needs to drop this class, do so before the last drop date.

Three Attempt Limit A state policy limits students to three attempts per course. Receiving a grade or a "W" for a course counts as an attempt, regardless of when the course was taken.

Withdrawal by the deadline to avoid a "W" will not count as an attempt.

Students with disabilities who need reasonable modifications, special assistance, or accommodations in this course should promptly direct their request to the course instructor. If a student with a disability feels modifications, special assistance, or accommodations offered are inappropriate or insufficient he/she should seek the assistance of the Director of Disabled Student Services on campus.

It is the policy of the Los Angeles Community College District (LACCD) and Los Angeles Mission College to accommodate students with disabilities, pursuant to federal law, state law and Los Angeles Mission College's commitment to equal educational opportunities. For accommodation due to disability, students must consult with the Disabled Students Programs and Services (DSP&S): For appointments, eligibility and information call 818-364- 7732 or visit <http://www.lamission.edu/dsps/>
