With careful planning, a student can complete the requirements for the Associate Degree while simultaneously completing the lower division preparation for most universities. Three requirements must be met in order to attain full junior standing at the UCs, the CSUs, or most independent universities to which students expect to transfer. These requirements are as follows:

1. Completion of 60 transferable units (units may vary at independent universities)
2. Completion of the specific General Education Requirements for junior standing in the proposed college or university
3. Completion of the lower division prerequisites for selected majors. These vary according to the institution in which students expect to enroll.

NOTE: Students expecting to transfer to such institutions should contact the Los Angeles Mission College Transfer Center to see a counselor and consult the respective catalog of these institutions regarding specific requirements for upper division standing.

What is the Intersegmental General Education Transfer Curriculum?

The Intersegmental General Education Transfer Curriculum (IGETC) is a general education program which community college transfer students can use to fulfill lower-division General Education Requirements in either the UC or CSU system without the need to take additional lower-division general education courses after transfer.

The IGETC is NOT an admission requirement to the UC or CSU system. There is no connection between completion of the IGETC and eligibility for admission to the UC or CSU system, or admission to a specific campus or program. Existing segmental and campus-specific admission requirements for transfer students remain unchanged. Requirements for lower division courses for admission to particular majors also remain unchanged.

A minimum total of 60 transferable units must be completed before transfer, for priority admission status. It is recommended that students complete lower division (the first two years of a four-year college) major requirements and general education requirements for the UC and/or CSU prior to transfer.

It is NOT advisable for all students to follow the IGETC. Some students may be better served by taking courses that fulfill the CSU General Education Breadth requirements or those of the UC campus or college to which they plan to transfer. Students pursuing majors that require extensive lower division major preparation, (such as engineering and computer science majors on all campuses or business majors at University of California, Berkeley) may not find the IGETC option to be advantageous. The Eleanor Roosevelt College and Revelle College of the University of California, San Diego do not accept IGETC. Additional lower division General Education Requirements may be needed prior to transfer. The IGETC will probably be most useful for students who want to keep their options open before making a final decision about transferring to a particular UC or CSU campus.

If you are approaching readiness for transfer and are unable to complete one or two IGETC courses you may be eligible for Certification. "Certification" means that LAMC has verified that a student has completed the lower division General Education requirements listed in each area of the IGETC. Certification does not guarantee admission or admission eligibility. Certification is not required and is not automatic; it must be requested by the student at the time the final official transcript is sent. A student may only be granted IGETC certification once (either partial or complete) prior to their first semester at the 4-year university. Students receiving partial certification must ensure that admission criteria for the university has been met (IGETC areas I and II). Students may complete the necessary coursework at the transfer institution and may NOT return to the Community College for complete certification if partial certification was granted. Without certification, the student will be held to the specific general education requirements of the university campus of choice. Please note, the UC Berkeley, College of Letters and Science does not accept partial Certification. Courses taken at several institutions may be used to fulfill the IGETC. Students should be aware, however, that placement of courses within IGETC subject areas may vary from college to college. Placement of a course will be based on the college of attendance and its IGETC pattern at the time the course was completed. Completion of the IGETC program will be certified by the last community college which the student attends.
