OFFICE OF THE CHANCELLOR ADMINISTRATIVE REGULATIONS
INDEX NUMBER: E-76

REFERENCE: Use of District and College Computing Facilities
Use of the Mission College Computer Network is subject to the guidelines contained in Chancellor's Directive Number 67, issued Feb. 24, 1995 and modified in April 1997.

By continuing with the login process you signify your agreement with these guidelines, which specify, in part, the following:

All employees and students using computing facilities are expected to operate within the bounds of federal and state law and of District policies and standards.
All existing District rules, regulations and policies apply to the use of computing facilities, including those that apply generally to personal conduct.
Misuse of computing facilities may result in the loss of computing privileges.

Policy violations:

- Conduct which is considered to violate District policy with respect to computing facilities includes, but is not limited to, the following:
 - Sending harassing, intimidating and/or threatening messages through electronic mail or other means;
 - Downloading, storing or displaying obscene or pornographic material;
 - Using computing facilities in a manner that violates copyrights, patent protections or license agreements, including using pirated or unlicensed software;
 - Knowingly performing an act which will interfere with the normal operation of computing facilities, cause damage or place excessive load on the system;
- Attempting to circumvent data protection schemes, uncover security loopholes or gain unauthorized access to any information or files;
- Intentionally entering, recording or causing to be recorded any false, inaccurate or misleading information into the systems;
- Sending mass advertisements or solicitations; or political mass mailings as defined by the Fair Political Practices Commission;
- Using computing facilities for commercial or personal financial gain;
- Taking computer hardware or software from District or college facilities for any purpose without prior written approval; and using computing facilities in a manner that violates existing state and federal laws or District rules and regulations;
