Name: _____ Location: _____

Title: _____ Appraisal Period _____
From _____ To _____

Type of Appraisal: Annual _____ First Probationary _____ Second Probationary _____

PURPOSE:

The purpose of this appraisal is to provide a systematic, objective and entirely constructive method of evaluating and informing an administrative employee of the effectiveness of the employee's performance and contribution to the overall purpose and mission of the Los Angeles Community College District. The appraisal is designed to achieve a mutual understanding between the supervisor and the employee regarding levels of past performance, identification of strengths and weaknesses, means for improving performance, and expectations for future performance. In view of these purposes, this appraisal deserves the careful attention and best judgement of all concerned.

INSTRUCTIONS:

Read carefully the definitions of "degrees" and the appraisal factors. Evaluate each factor separately. Provide comments and/or suggestions for each appraisal factor. If degree 1 is indicated, suggestions for improvement must be provided.

DEFINITIONS OF PERFORMANCE LEVEL DEGREES

Degree 1-Performance shows deficiencies which seriously interfere with the attainment of the principal objectives of the position. Improved performance on this factor is needed which requires a serious concentrated effort on the part of the employee to reach a satisfactory level.

Degree 2-Performance shows attainment of the principal objectives of the position. Performance is consistent with reasonable expectations of a well-trained, competent person in this position classification.

Degree 3-Performance shows consistent and important contributions which exceed normal expectations. Performance achievements are distinctive and unique and are beyond the principal objectives of the position.

N - Use this category when there has been no opportunity to observe or evaluate the employee on the factor.
