

Division: Office of the Chancellor

Roles & Responsibilities

As the sole employee of the Board of Trustees, the Chancellor bears responsibility and is fully accountable for all operations, programs, and services provided in the name of the District. Working with all District constituencies, the Chancellor guides the development of the District’s mission and strategic goals and oversees the allocation of District resources in their support. As the District’s chief advocate and policy maker, the Chancellor also represents the interests of the District and District colleges to local, state, and national stakeholders and decision makers. The Chancellor delegates appropriate authority to the college presidents and holds them accountable for the operations and programs offered at District colleges.
