92. What is the "one" thing you find challenging about Mission college?

Mean: -

Response	Value	Frequency	Percent	Graph
	-	485	79.9
amount of classes readily available to students	-	1	0.2
I am very impressed with my professors. They are knowledgeable and approachable. They get back via email very fast.	-	1	0.2
One thing that is challenging to find at Mission college are classes when it comes up to registering.	-	1	0.2
There is an abundance of students, yet very liittle classes to supply.	-	1	0.2
I wish the ASO would get more involved in letting LAMC students know what they are about, and they should have brochures about LAMC's clubs.	-	1	0.2
I tried to join the ASO club and asked them to brief me about the things they're doing? they didn't do that.. and the atmosphere there was so hostile, they were arguing and using terminology that was hard for me to understand.	-	1	0.2
not enough available classes.	-	1	0.2
The prices. Everything else is fine.	-	1	0.2
Fitting it in to my full time work schedule and pursuing a MS in Engineering part time.	-	1	0.2
Who is the grievance ombudsperson? No one seems to know.	-	1	0.2
no	-	4	0.7
I am an English major, and the English department is terrible at LAMC. There are almost no classes available, and the instructors are a joke. I am supposed to be learning something, and I feel I am not.	-	1	0.2
Math students are too often admitted to classes without adequate prep or level of edu and they hold the class back so we don't get to cover sufficient material due to time constraints.	-	1	0.2
Communicating with someone about my personal and social problems!	-	1	0.2

Mission College courses and instructors are fantastic.	-	1	0.2
NO	-	1	0.2
Lack of class options. Especially online classes. Working students need more options to better fit their schedules.	-	1	0.2
Approaching staff/faculty when I have questions, concerns, or complaints is pretty challenging being they are not interested. I don't feel comfortable going to someone I don't feel cares about me.	-	1	0.2
Professor Milke. She is rude and does not care about the student body. She violated my privacy. I feel as though I have been raped emotionally by Professor Milke.	-	1	0.2
the amount of classes and the times they are scheduled. there should be more classes available and more starting at different times.	-	1	0.2
I like this school very much overall but not being able to get responses from teachers through e-mail is a big challenge because it is hard to communicate with staff otherwise.	-	1	0.2
Not enough classes or they are full even though I register as soon as I can or am able to.	-	1	0.2
Not being able to get enough of it in one day!	-	1	0.2
The availability of courses. Not only does this complicate my scheduling, but backtracks me because I then have to go to Valley and Pierce.	-	1	0.2
The classes offered are limited. When available, they fill up too quickly.	-	1	0.2
there is a lot of confusion overall a good example is Question # 90 that is a trick question ESL students will miss interpreted this question.	-	1	0.2
Parking. I cannot afford to pay every six months.	-	1	0.2
I have only had one "sub-par" Instructor. The majority of your faculty are knowledgeable and extremely effective at transmitting their area of study to me.	-	1	0.2
Nothing	-	1	0.2

the availability of classes and also the cut of winter and summer session are not helpful in achieving educational goal.	-	1	0.2
Registering for classes	-	1	0.2
Figuring how and where to express complaints about instructors is challenging.	-	1	0.2
Taking short term classes on Saturday and still getting it all done!	-	1	0.2
no comments	-	1	0.2
Finding weekend in-person classes or on-line only classes in a wider variety of classes / areas of study.	-	1	0.2
Not enough classes offered. Classes are too full.	-	1	0.2
Nothing that I can think of...	-	1	0.2
not having some classes that other CC's have such as Solar Power	-	1	0.2
there is no food place near by campuse besides the hotdog man and the cafeteria	-	1	0.2
Individuals who plan or who do not wait on last minute things, are frowned upon by the facility, I have not meet any approachable faculty, and you do not offer enough classes in the evening.	-	1	0.2
the lack of classes being offered	-	1	0.2
I believe there are more activies and events since the new ASO president has taken over.	-	1	0.2
Trying to find financial aid information or what classes are required for me to be transferable to a 4 year university.	-	1	0.2
not enough sports	-	1	0.2
Students show up high for class too often. I don't feel safe with ASO. Campus events are usually just lantin american which makes me feel left out.	-	1	0.2
The number of classes offered each semester.	-	1	0.2
NOTHING	-	1	0.2
we should offer dance classes at mission or at east a dance club	-	1	0.2
not enough of necessary courses	-	1	0.2
Clubs are not very known and I feel that at times some campus activities are organized not to help the students learn, but instead distract from the intellectual learning that should be going on.	-	1	0.2

Some of the classrooms have outdated desk. They are not suited for adult sizes.	-	1	0.2
One of my many concerns at Los Angeles Mission College is the lack of participations, the amount of activies, school spirit, sports, and the quantity of clubs available.	-	1	0.2
The homework	-	1	0.2
I realize that the college on its own cannot determine this because the budget comes from other sources, but it is incredibly challenging to add courses with the recent budget cuts.	-	1	0.2
WE NEED A BASKETBALL TEAM!	-	1	0.2
how to deal with academic probation.	-	1	0.2
Getting a clear idea of a career path.	-	1	0.2

nothing	-	1	0.2
safety at night	-	1	0.2
Getting out of the parking structure during the first few weeks of school.	-	1	0.2
Why, are not enough classes in courses like chemistry? The amount of students that enroll and later drop classes is ridiculous, and really harm students that really want to assist to classes. Something must be done to stop this!	-	1	0.2
what programs the campus has to offer	-	1	0.2
Nothing.	-	1	0.2
Counseling is HORRIBLE.	-	1	0.2

I'm sorry - I don't understand this question. Do you mean "challenging" in a negative way (as in frustrated by an obstacle to learning or getting a degree)? Or in a positive way (as in a program being challenging and stimulating?)	-	1	0.2
The fear of retaliation if you speak up when you see something that is very unethical.	-	1	0.2
student compassion. i feel most staff/faculty are really not too concerned with student problems.	-	1	0.2
The most challenging thing about Mission college is realizing that all the potential resources that can be used to help the students; i.e. classroom space, computers, Microsoft academic alliance programs, is all going to waste	-	1	0.2
The courses/classes are very demanding because of the homework that the professors assigned to students; however, the professors do actually teach me great concepts and theories.	-	1	0.2
Getting claes that fit my schedule	-	1	0.2
I instructors are clear in their classes, content of courses are pretty clear as well as syllabi all these things leave personal commitment to the class as the only challenge at Mission.	-	1	0.2
I am a working adult, more evening, weekend and online classes would be extremely helpful.	-	1	0.2
The instructors	-	1	0.2
Food Services should be open at least 'til 9pm -- instructors lose track of time often and breaks sometimes only after 7:30pm or 8pm. Difficult to come straight work in traffic. Dine at 10:30p or 11pm unsatisfactory. Open 3rd party food on campus?	-	1	0.2
Getting my homework done on time. Some of it is difficult, and I don't have time to see the instructor before the work is due.	-	1	0.2
N/A	-	1	0.2
the couseling dept	-	1	0.2
bus transportation	-	1	0.2

not being aware of registration dates without checking my online profile, no email notifications are sent out	-	1	0.2
finding parking!	-	1	0.2
Political Sci Instructor is great\Math 112 Bloom instructor is not helpful	-	1	0.2
trying to stay away from the campus center building, smell of cookies they sell is hard to resist. I would like to have shuttle service on fridays from main campus to HFAC	-	1	0.2
keeping a c or better in classes	-	1	0.2
please have more Child Development 22 and 23 classes. They are almost impossible to get into because they only take 15 students.	-	1	0.2
The Mathematics department has a very bad reputation among the students. The professors are known to be pretty crappy; mine does not even speak English	-	1	0.2
none	-	1	0.2
Mission college would be a lot better in my opinion if it had ways for students to get together and make new friends. I feel as students arrive to school go to class, maybe eat, and leave.	-	1	0.2
Leaving the parking lot after class.	-	1	0.2
