

Background and Instructions:

In order to achieve compliance with accreditation standards, the college mission statement must be periodically reviewed. This survey asks for your input on the proposed mission statements which were drafted on April 17th 2012 by the Accreditation Task Force. Your responses to this survey will help the college complete the review process and provide information that will support future accreditation efforts. This survey will take no more than five (5) minutes to complete.

Survey details:

- Mission Outlook email account is used to access the survey.
- The survey will be closed on Friday, April 27th, 2012.

This survey is administered by the Office of Institutional Research and Technology. Thank you for your participation.
