

SLO Summit Outcomes October 17, 2014

Why are we here, why are we doing this?

To benefit our students, faculty, and administrators by improving our pedagogy, curriculum, and approach to teaching and learning; and thereby improve our institution's overall effectiveness.

To promote campus dialogue.

To demonstrate sustainable quality improvement at LAMC.

Expected Outcomes for the SLO Summit:

Participants will

- Engage in dialog with other faculty and staff about meaningful assessments, what has been learned from them, and how the results have been used to improve student learning on all levels.
- Analyze course assessment results and assess several Program Learning Outcomes (PLOs) based on previous course assessments that have been done.
- Use the SLO online system to record Program Learning Outcome assessments including assessment analysis, identification of improvements, improvements implemented, and follow-up results.
- Modify as needed the assessment schedule for the next round of PLO assessments.
