

Student Support Services invites you to our

L.A. MISSION COLLEGE

FIELD TRIP TO JPL

LET YOUR MIND SORE!!!

January 9, 2009

Departure: 11:30 a.m.

Arrival: 3:30 p.m.

To attend you must sign up by December 15, 2008.

- all U.S. citizens over 18 years old must present official, government official photo identification before allowed entry
- The tour includes considerable walking. dress comfortably and appropriately for the weather.

Come and join your Student Support Services team as we explore and learn about the extraordinary activities done at JPL also known as the Jet Propulsion Laboratory.

The tour is 2-2.5 hours long with a multi-media presentation which provides an overview of Laboratory activities and accomplishments

"Do not go where the path may lead,, Go instead where there is no path, and leave a trail."

Ralph Waldo Emerson

To inspire the next generation of explorers.

