Membership Guide

What is ASO?

The Associated Student Organization was established to provide students the opportunity for participation in student leadership and the development of skills. The objectives of the ASO are: to advocate for the rights and needs of all LAMC students and to address any concerns and/or issues thereof; to support, raise awareness of, and promote cultural sensitivity and diversity; and to promote educational opportunities contributive to a successful college experience (student services, educational events, and other beneficial programs). The ASO votes on issues related to Los Angeles Mission College and the student body.
